Jorge,

At the end, when I ask you to share this, can you put it up?

I can tell you our collisions over the last week were down 9% overall...this includes injury and non-injury. Our activity overall has ticked up and I will have Pat add collisions to the daily tracking.

Here is the latest overall activity.

Subject: MVC Data

Peter,

In January we responded to 43 MVCs, February 22, and March 24. I think if you wanted an accurate number of MVC in Albany, Marcia would be able to get you that. We only respond on a small fraction of accidents.

Here is a quick chart (with a trendline) showing our slowdown over the last few weeks.

Take care,
SW
