Saturday, October 3rd, 2009

This is our 22nd year, bringing artists and sponsors together to benefit Northcoast Children's Services. Our local programs extend services to over 1000 children and their families annually.

Please join us as an artist on the Arcata Plaza to "chalk it up for kids":

- Mark your calendar for October 3rd.
- Return the enclosed card.
- Include your sponsor's name and have your sponsor fill out and return a sponsor registration card.
- If you do not have a sponsor, we will assign one to you.
- Check in between 8:00 am and 9:00 am.
- Bring your inspiration, kneepads, spray bottles and brushes (the City of Arcata does not allow paint or fixatives).

We provide the pastels. Artists are expected to do art appropriate for a family event (i.e., no adult themes, nothing political).

Then join us for a stroll to admire the art work, meet other artists and sponsors; and celebrate another successful year!

Reception from 11:00-2:00 in the Plaza View Room—Jacoby Store House

Challenging times call for creative solutions. Paying the bills is on everyone's mind. As we plan our 22nd "Pastels on the Plaza" we become more grateful than ever before for your support.

Just as the artist's work touches our hearts, your donation touches the lives of children and families on the Northcoast.

Please join us this 22nd year by sponsoring an art square. Your donation will benefit the children and families served by Northcoast Children's Services. Our services extend to over 1000 children and families.

Please return the enclosed card:

- Include your artist's name, address and phone if you have already contacted one.
- If you do not have an artist, we will assign one to you.
- If you request special art work (i.e. your business logo), you will need to provide your own artist.

Then join us for a stroll to admire the art work and meet the artists and other sponsors.

To Whom It May Concern

2010 ALBANY TEEN ART SHOW

For the past four years, the Albany Arts Commission has sponsored a teen art show to showcase local talent, and that talent is considerable. The show began with very few participants and the 2009 show drew more than 100 entries. All media appropriate for public display are encouraged, including but not limited to drawing, painting, jewelry, and sculpture.

The Teen Art Show is open to all Albany teens. The work each submits is juried by the Arts Commission and the top three pieces receive awards. Albany residents choose a fourth award, the People's Choice, by popular vote in May when the art work is displayed at City Hall. In an effort to include all student artists, we try to include at least one piece from each artist in that display. The Arts Commission hosts a reception for the young artists at City Hall on the fourth Wednesday in May.

In order to continue this wonderful opportunity for Albany teens, we are asking local businesses and organizations to help provide prize money. The Albany Arts Commission is not funded, so money is scarce. We hope you agree that the Teen Art Show is an opportunity worth your contribution.

The Arts Commission and Albany teen artists appreciate any and all support of this special program. If you can help, please send contributions to City of Albany Arts Commission, P.O. Box 490, Albany, OR 97321.

Thank you.
