LIBRARY FOUNDATION

Gallagher said the Foundation met at the Albany Boys' and Girls' Club (ABGC) with some of their staff. ABGC has a literacy corner and they have a couple of other places where they encourage kids to read. The ABGC wrote a Walmart Grant to create a teen reading area with some furniture, bookcases, and books. Gallagher said they are looking for a way to partner with the Library without the Library needing to do much. There was discussion of ways for the kids to earn the right to make a field trip to the Library or other ways the Foundation might underwrite a program.

Gallagher reported the Carnegie basement renovation isn't finished yet, however, the Children's room is open but the rest rooms are not.
