The Human Relations Commission was established in 2007 “to promote harmonious relations among the citizens of Albany” through recommendations of “programs, activities, ordinances, expenditures and other appropriate governmental activities which will serve the goal of maintaining respectful interactions within our community.” (Ord. 5671 § 1, 2007; Ord. 5665 § 1, 2007).

A brief review of Commission activities during 2014 is set forth below. A history of Commission membership and attendance is attached to this report.

January 2014
- Chris Equinoa joined the Commission, replacing Michael Thomson.
- Members hosted and participated in reading Martin Luther King, Jr.’s “I Have a Dream” speech at City Hall on January 15, 2014.
- Members Nancy Greenman, Kim Whitley, and former member Michael Thomson presented the Human Relations Awards at the January 22, 2014, City Council meeting. Annette Hobbs and Christmas Storybook Land received the awards.
- Tonja Everest and Lisa Shogren from Greater Albany Public Schools spoke to the Commission about prekindergarten outreach and readiness.
- Tony Howell with Linn County Mental Health told the Commission that the county would be focusing on children during Mental Health Month in May 2014. The Commission discussed recognizing local youth who are helping their peers.

No meetings in February or March – lack of quorum

April 2014
- Danette Killinger, Linn County Health Services Prevention Officer, spoke to the Commission about activities planned for Mental Health Month.
- Dan Stone, theater director at LBCC, told the Commission about Sanctuary Stage, a community art project that, this spring, involved local veterans of Afghanistan and Iraq and their families.

May 2014
- Mayor Konopa signed and read a Mental Health Awareness Month proclamation on May 14, 2014. A news story about the observance also appeared in the May 2014 issue of City Bridges.
- Member Equinoa was appointed to the City Community Development Commission, replacing member Cervantes.

June 2014
- Sandy Roberts, Community Education Specialist with Albany Police Department, spoke to the Commission about National Night Out and police efforts to communicate effectively and positively with Albany residents whose native language is Spanish.
- The Commission’s annual report was received by the Albany City Council on June 11.

July 2014
- Debbie Berg joined the Commission, replacing Rob Duncan, who resigned.
- Ed Hodney, Director of Parks & Recreation, presented information about plans for redesigning and renovating Sunrise Park. Members attended a community meeting there; residents of the neighborhood have been encouraged to be part of the planning.
- Albany Police Lt. Casey Dorland gave a presentation on community policing, data-driven policing, community education efforts and the duties of staff in the Community Resource Unit.
- Members volunteered at River Rhythms concerts on July 24 and July 31.
August 2014
➤ The monthly meeting was devoted to planning for activities coming up in the fall.

September 2014
➤ The Commission cosponsored and participated in the Rural Organizing Project’s presentation, “Why Aren’t There More Black People in Oregon?,” at Albany Public Library on September 7, lead by Walidah Imarisha, a professor at Portland State and Oregon State Universities.
➤ Members participated in Festival Latino on September 21.
➤ Member Cervantes participated in Welcome Day at LBCC on September 25 and reported to the Commission about the achievements and concerns of Hispanic students on campus there.
➤ Todd Noble, Kathryn Henderson, and Danette Killinger spoke to the Commission about Mental Illness Awareness Week, October 5-11. They viewed a video for physicians and health care providers that was intended to increase awareness of mental illness and get people talking and thinking about its prevalence.

October 2014
➤ The Commission held its annual joint meeting with the Hispanic Advisory Committee of Linn and Benton Counties. The groups discussed how City services and programs are accessed by the Latino community and suggested how that access might be improved. Discussion focused on transit and language services and addressed how City staff accommodates residents or clients who do not speak or read English well.

November 2014
➤ Representatives of Community Action for Racial Equality (CARE) and Corvallis Raging Grannies asked the Commission to support a resolution denouncing hate speech after racist literature was found on vehicles in downtown Albany after the Veterans’ Day parade.
➤ Jasper Smith, head of the Martin Luther King Commission for the City of Corvallis, met with the Commission regarding MLK Day events in Corvallis and offered collaboration with the HRC on future events. The Commission made plans to host a public reading of Dr. King’s “I’ve Been to the Mountaintop” speech at City Hall on January 15, 2015.
➤ City Manager Wes Hare and Information Technology Director Jorge Salinas presented a draft Limited English Proficiency Plan for the Commission’s review.

December 2014
➤ The Commission requested and the City Council adopted the CARE resolution at the December 3, 2014, City Council meeting.
Conclusion: As members of the Human Relations Commission, it is a pleasure to continue to promote harmonious relations among the citizens of Albany through our recommendations and support for activities that serve the goal of maintaining respectful interactions within our community. We have met that goal to the best of our ability and feel our output is commendable, considering limited resources. The Commission members believe the commission is still needed and valued and there is still a lot of work to do. We thank the City Council for your support.

Respectfully submitted,

Kim Whitley, Chair

Javier Cervantes

Chris Equinoa
